PCC MANAGEMENT REORGANIZATION ANNOUNCED

In a move designed to improve the efficiency of Center operations, a major reorganization of senior management positions was announced on Monday by PCC President Les Moore.

Here is a management update by division:

Senior Vice President – Guest Services
T. DAVID HANNEMANN

Hannemann now has only three managers reporting directly to him: Logo Apelu is the new Cultural Island Director who will oversee all seven Island Managers. Also announced was Sione Latu as the new Tongan Island Manager.

Delsa Moe is the new Guides Manager over both East and Westbound guides. PCC musician Tuiala Savai'inaea replaces Andrew Autele as a Guides Supervisor while Patsy Moliga remains as Eastbound Guides Supervisor and Dorian Moe remains Ushers Supervisor.

Sergio Rapu continues as Cultural Development Manager.

Senior Vice President – Operations
LES STEWARD

Raymond Mariteragi has reorganized his department with Jack Uale as Night Show Supervisor; Ellen Gay Dela Rosa as Promotion Team Supervisor; Vai Fa'amaligi as Pageant of the Long Canoes Supervisor; and Nikki Wallace as Ali'i Luau Supervisor.

Leonard Peters and Sione Pasi remain as Physical Facilities and Technical Services Managers respectively.

Senior Vice President – Human Resources
JOHN MUAINA

No organizational changes.

Senior Vice President – Public Relations & Advertising
REG SCHWENKE

No organizational changes.

Controller
LARRY YUEN

The number of senior staff reporting to him will be reduced to five with Wally Chew as Accounting Manager; Iraani Bridges as Credit Manager; Fred Camit and Gil Obina remain as MIS and Purchasing Managers respectively; and Siaoisi Lautaha as Systems/Control Specialist. Sister Lois Wilson, wife of PCC marketing missionary Elder Paul Wilson, will be Yuen's new secretary.

Director of Sales
P. ALFRED GRACE

All PCC sales functions now report to Grace. Added responsibilities include Eastbound Sales (formerly Osamu Ozaki who resigned to establish his own marketing consulting business); Hawaii Sales (formerly Mike Foley); Reservations (Teri Montgomery remains as manager); and the Waikiki Ticket Office.

Director of Retail Sales
MIKE FOLEY

Food Services was transferred to this division and Winona Enesa remains as manager. Eric Workman continues as Museum Stores Manager. Mission Complex Manager Sela Feinga and the PCC Carvers Manager Barney Christy will also report to this division because they will be more involved in retail sales of handcrafted items at the Center.
