Final preparations and rehearsals are being held today for the spectacular halftime performance which will begin at about 12:30 p.m. -- a presentation that will feature the popular singing duo Keola and Kapono Beamer, hundreds of young musicians from Hawaii's high schools and our spirited representatives from Laie.

We'll be treating 50,000 local folks as well as a nationwide television audience to songs and dances from all of our island groups. Our Aloha

Week floats will be decorated with palm trees, ferns, assorted flowers... and even a smoking volcano! Hula Bowl kickoff time will be at 11 a.m.
