Pres. Haycock appointed to PCC Board Of Directors

D. Arthur Haycock, who recently was called to serve as the president of the Hawaii Temple, has been appointed to the board of directors of the Polynesian Cultural Center. President Haycock has served as the personal secretary to five of the 13 church presidents. He will assume his position as Hawaii Temple president on June 1 of this year.

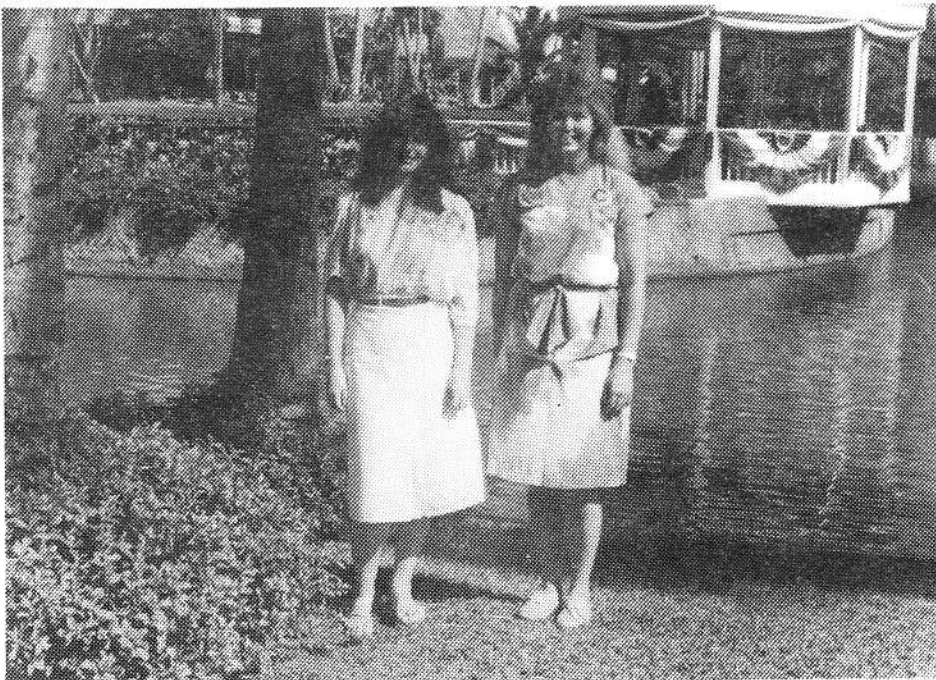

President Haycock has served in Hawaii on two previous occasions, first as a missionary from 1935-37, and he later returned as a mission president from May 1954 to August 1958. He is familiar with Laie and is personally known by many of it's residents. He also returned in June of 1978 with President Spencer W. Kimball for the rededication of the Hawaii Temple.

On behalf of the employees and management of the Polynesian Cultural Center, the UPDATE staff welcomes President Haycock and his wife Maurine, to the PCC team. The other members of the PCC board will remain as follows: Elder Marvin J. Ashton, chairman, George Q. Cannon, Fred A. Baker, F. William Gay, J. Willard Marriott, and Jeffrey R. Holland.
