Anniversary Update Kapena Concert A Big Splash!

As part of the 26th Anniversary Celebration, on October 14, 1989 the Center provided a concert featuring the popular local musical group Kapena. For those of you who missed out, you really missed out!!! The crowd came alive to Kapena's more popular songs and began dancing in their seats, in the isles, and even in the lagoon. One might have thought that there was a swimming pool in the Pavilion during the concert, but it was only the lagoon dancers who were the show stealers.

*Kapena
In Concert*

It was an exciting concert. Many different kinds of music were played. The different kinds of music included selections from rock, reggae falsetto Hawaiian songs, and ballads.

As part of the concert, door prizes were given away. Congratulations (?) to Unaloto Kioa of the Tongan Village. She won a trip for two to San Francisco, with accommodations for 4 days and 3 nights at the Holiday Inn. (If it is still there).

A great big Mahalo to the Sales Account

Executives at the Waikiki Office and the Purchasing Department here at the Center for securing the many wonderful door prizes which made the concert even more enjoyable.

Thanks also to the following departments: Security, Housekeeping, Nursery, Technical Services, and Stage Crews. And a particular Mahalo to Special Projects Manager Celva Toa, Special Projects Assistant Sati Atagi, and their helpers for coordinating this gala event. We can't wait to see what you have in store for next year. Maybe another Kapena Concert?

Bryan Bowles, Celva Toa, and with a little help from Michele Macattag, call out the numbers of those lucky enough to win some of the door prizes

Purchasing Reminder

Serious consideration should be given to the lead time on any request for purchase. Without a realistic lead time, the total effectiveness of the system is undermined. If the "Date Needed By" (item #4 on the Purchase Requisition) is indeed critical, the author of the PR should take steps to insure that internal routing be attended to personally, or at least traced because it is part of your lead time.

Fireside this Sunday Al Harrington to Speak

There will be a special Fireside this Sunday night. The featured speaker will be Al Harrington.

Al Harrington came to Hawaii when he was only 3 years old. His mother married an Irishman from the mainland and he became Al Harrington. Later, he attended Punahou High school. He played football there and was the first all american named from outside the mainland. He graduated from Stanford and went on to do various business related jobs. He even had a chance to play football for the Baltimore Colts, but decided instead to serve a mission.

After his mission to Samoa (his great - grandfather Saimasina Suapaia, established the Mormon Church in Samoa in the early 1800's.) Al returned to California to attend law school. After a while he returned to Hawaii to obtain his masters degree and teach history at Punahou.

Harrington is also familiar to television audiences as Ben Kokua from the show Hawaii Five-O. Other important accomplishments have included having been the host for the annual Hawaii Easter Seal's telethon, chairman of the Multiple Sclerosis drive, and various capacities with such civic groups as the Variety Club, Big Brothers of Hawaii, the Boy Scouts of America, and educational television

All are invited to this special fireside from 6:00 to 7:00.

WordPerfect Magazine Rep Visits To Do Story on Center WP Users

Lisa Downs and her father Robert (along as chief photographer) visited the Center on Monday, October 16, to gather information on the unique ways that workers at the Center use WordPerfect. With this information, she will write an article that hopefully will appear in the pages of WordPerfect Magazine. This magazine especially for WP users has a circulation of almost 150,000.

She spent time with several of our workers and came up with some very interesting ideas for her story.

Also while here, she gave a special presentation on the newest release of WordPerfect for the IBM.

As she went around to the individual users of the program, she would see what tasks the workers were trying to accomplish and then would tell them how they could get the most out of using the features of WordPerfect.

Here are some of the people she visited and some of the applications of WordPerfect that they shared with Lisa:

Alfredo Querido does scheduling of workload.

Michelle Stinger explains her unique uses for WordPerfect.

Lisa Downs talks with Steve Christensen and Lei Cummings

May a Black Cat NOT Cross Your Path Oct. 31

Halloween approaches on black cat feet: a nighttime for broomed witches flying, ghostly goblins haunting, jack-o-lantern lights aglow and grinning.

But how did the sleek and purring feline come to be associated with such dark doings? First, Bidpai, a scholar circa 326 B.C., is credited with recording the nine lives bit. He wrote: "It has been the providence of Nature to give this creature (the cat) nine lives instead of one".

Then during the middle ages, belief had it that a witch could take on her cat's body nine times. The tale was told of one witch who, while burning at the stake, leaped out of the fire as a black cat and disappeared into the night.

And in language still used, the cat has been imbued with a killing curiosity, stealthiness, and duplicity.

There's:

- cat-and-mouse - continual torment while waiting to attack
- catcall - derisive whistle
- catlike- stealthy
- cat's paw - dupe
- catty - malicious, as a remark
- fat cat - wealthy, privileged person
- hellcat - evil woman

In addition, a cat in a bag was used to dupe an unsuspecting customer, who, if he discovered his error before getting home, had, let the cat out of the bag. And it's no accident that Lewis and Carroll had their aloof Cheshire cat grin enigmatically and disappear.

On the other hand, archaeologists know the ancient Egyptians honored the cat, as many mummified cats were found. Yet despite the ancient Egyptians, Puss'n Boots (a well traveled Renaissance kind of cat), and Dr. Suess' Cat in the Hat, the cat's overall reputation remains decidedly tarnished. Think of Garfield, a mischievous troublemaker, and the bestseller 1001 Ways to Kill a Cat.

So, better avoid the black cat's path before it crosses yours!

Man on the Street: How was the Kapena Concert?

Here are some of the employees thoughts and feelings about the recent Kapena Concert that was just a part of the Polynesian Cultural Center's 26th birthday. Celebration.

If you were there, you already know that it was a HOT event. Many more opinions were expressed by people too shy to appear in print, but the overall reaction was that the show was very entertaining and a great success!

Kenn Peters, Canoe Guide:
The music was Top Choice!

Tari Brewerton, Concessions: I hope they do another one.
More local groups

Dosi Gali, Hawaiian Village:
We have some of their tapes, but to see them in person. . . WOW!

Vika Tilini, Shop Polynesia:
Awesome Reggae! It was a cool, wet evening!

Military VIP India Four Star General Hosted

On October 17, 1989, the Polynesian Cultural Center hosted General Vishwa Nath Sharma of India. General Sharma is a four star general and is the Chief of Staff of the Indian Army. Accompanying General Sharma was his wife, Brigadier General Apurba Kumarsen Gupta and his wife and other liaison party members.

Escorting General Sharma and his party was General Claud "Mick" Kicklighter, the Commanding General of the U.S. Army Western Command, and his wife. General Kicklighter has recently been nominated by President Bush to Command the U.S. Army Pacific. They were accompanied by Captain Michael Dawkins, Aide de Camp to General Kicklighter, and Captain Pisarich, Protocol Officer, and security personnel.

T. David Hannemann, Vice President of Guest Services, and Cy Bridges, Vice President of the Villages, hosted General Sharma and his group.

Each village entertained and presented gifts to General Sharma and his wife. Members of the group participated in singing, dancing and learning to make music. In the Fijian village, they learned the "Derua", making music with bamboo sticks.

General Sharma and his group thoroughly enjoyed their visit to the Center. They were impressed with the skills and talents of the villagers and the performers.

Pro Wrestlers Visit NO HOPE IN DOPE!

On Thursday, October 19, 1989 a group of four very large, very solid men came to visit the Center. They were part of local wrestler Don "The Rock" Muraco's NO HOPE IN DOPE benifit.

The matches were held on Friday, October 20, at the Blaisedale Arena. These matches were just a small part of the program which also included personal appearances by local rap groups as well.

While the group was here they managed to learn the tahitian dance, they rode a canoe and they had a huge meal tat the gateway.

The Wrestlers find out that "moves" really are everything.

Sorting In WordPerfect

There are three ways to sort your text in WordPerfect. They are: Line, paragraph, and merge.

A line sort is great for producing a quick alphabetized list of your document, like a list of names. Here's what a line sort looks like:

Line Sort

Colin Hall	111 West Avenue	Anykine, CA 97003
Mike Jones	231 East Street	Whatever, HI 96843
Tom Smith	5000 North Main	Somewhere, NY 11303

or this:

Chris Wilson
Colin Low
Fred Camit
Lei Cummings
Sol Kahawaii

Notice that the first document, tabs or indents must be used to separate the fields in order for this sort to perform. Spaces will not work.

Paragraph Sort

Colin Hall
111 West Avenue
Anykine, CA 97003

Mike Jones
231 East Street
Whatever, HI 96843

Tom Smith
5000 North Main
Somewhere, NY 11303

When using this kind of sort, each paragraph is a record and must end with two or more hard returns.

Secondary Merge Files

Colin Hall^R
111 West Avenue^R
Anykine, CA 97003^R
^E

Mike Jones^R
231 East Street^R
Whatever, HI 96843^R
^E

Tom Smith^R
5000 North Main^R
Somewhere, NY 11303^R

WordPerfect recognizes field and record delimiters and sorts accordingly.

To perform a quick sort of these types of documents, turn your BLOCK mode on (Alt-F4 or F12) and highlight the items you want to sort. Then, execute your SORT Command (Ctrl - F9). Press 7 (Type) and indicate what type of sort you want to use and press 1 to Perform Action. Instant Alphabetized List.
