

UPDATE '85

Keeping us in stitches and starch: PCC LAUNDERERS AND SEAMSTRESSES

This week the UPDATE spotlights the hardworking employees in the Laundry and Seamstress Department. Support Services Vice President John Muaina maintains a crew of eleven workers with Kuini Asuega as supervisor. According to Asuega, harmony is the key to completing the 4:30am to 10:30pm work day. The employees willingly trade tasks at a moment's notice to keep the Center's uniforms in tiptop shape, whether it be to press or sort, pin or cut. Three 75lb. capacity washers, four 100lb. capacity dryers, and a bevy of presses, sewing machines and yard goods aid in the daily operation but our thanks go to the people who run them so efficiently. Mahalo to the following for putting in long hours with friendly smiles: Kuini Asuega (supervisor), Mildred Cashman (lead launderer), Ailaoa Soifua, Emily Kapu, Salai Hekesi, Shelly Rivers, Falani Tua, Ofa Tauakai (lead seamstress), Maile Vi, Mele Taumoepeau and Theresa Warner.

OLYMPICS '85 AT THE PCC

June 28th and 29th were big days for the would-be olympic athletes at the PCC. Employees from all departments participated in this first of twice yearly mini-olympics put on by the Training Department. Events varied from the traditional to innovative but the feel of the "real" olympics pervaded as the seven mile marathon was completed in just over 45 minutes and husking of coconuts in mere seconds. Overall congrats must go to the Theatre Department for placing first in 19 of 26 events. They will have their names inscribed on the PCC Mini-Olympic Plaque which will be displayed prominently. The first four place teams will receive trophies. Here are the final point standings:

1st:	Theatre.....	705
2nd:	Maintenance.....	465
3rd:	Concessions/Reservations...	350
4th:	Gateway.....	260
5th:	Guest Services.....	230
6th:	Shop Polynesia.....	105
7th:	Administration.....	105
8th:	Villages.....	95

Congratulations to all who entered for their sportsmanlike conduct and athletic performances.
